Two More Y-12ers Will Retire On June 30; J. F. Carpenter And W. E. Lay Are To Leave

Two more Y-12ers with long and excellent records of employment are scheduled to retire next Tuesday, June 30. They are—alphabetically—Joseph Franklin Carpenter, of the Safety Department; and Walter Elmer Lay, of Buildings and Grounds. They are the seventh and eighth Y-12ers to retire this year and the 53rd and 54th since Carbide took over Y-12 operations in 1947. During 1959 there will be 13 retirements, leaving six to go, and in 1958 there were 15. Detailed stories on the two retirees start below.

Safety Engineer Native Of Taylorsville, Va.

(Editor's Note: Pictures of the Joe Carpenter retirement dinner on Friday night, June 19, will be published in The Bulletin next week.)

Joseph Franklin Carpenter—known throughout Y-12 as Joe—will end a long and interesting career with the Y-12 Plant next Tuesday, June 30, when he retires. With two periods of Y-12 employment on his record, since June 25, 1951, he has been a safety engineer in the Safety Department, being most recently assigned to the Mechanical Operations Division.

Is Avid Baseball Fan

Joe Carpenter is not only well-known, but is well-liked by all Y-12ers with whom he has worked. An avid baseball fan ("agin" the Yankees) he will discuss the diamond sport at the drop of a hat—or bat. However, his principal interest rested in his work as a safety engineer—had no Y-12er had the wafere of his fellow-employees more at heart. Carpenter made a close study of his work and his advice and knowledge of the subject made him a most valuable man in his position.

Born in Taylorsville, Va., June 30, 1894, Joe Carpenter got his schooling in public school at Ashland, Va., and graduated from Washington-Henry High School at East Altee, Va. He later attended Bear Island Academy, a preparatory school, at Taylorsville.

Carpenter From Union County To Fix Farm

The Buildings and Grounds Department of Y-12 will bid farewell next week to Walter Elmer Lay, a carpenter who first came to work in Y-12 back in 1943. Lay, highly praised by his foremen and well-liked by his fellow employees, will retire from Carbide on Tuesday, June 30.

The retiring carpenter has had two periods of employment in Y-12. He first came to work on October 28, 1943. On April 11, 1947, he left under a reduction in force but was rehired on May 19 of the same year.

Born In Union County

Born in Union County, Tenn., he attended Halls High School in Knox County. Before coming to Y-12 he worked with the Tennessee Valley Authority, the E. I. duPont de Nemours Co., and Kelly and Overton, Knoxville contractors, in his trade as a carpenter.

He had a brief career in the United States Army during World War I in 1918, being stationed with a ROTC unit at Camp Rose, Terre Haute, Ind. He was a corporal when discharged.

Gets "Going Away" Present

His fellow carpenters in Buildings and Grounds gave Lay a "going-away" assembly last week. His foreman, Floyd Queener, presented the retiree with an electric power saw and Lay was the center of a large group of well-wishers at the end of the brief ceremony. Both Queener and A. A. Groppe, general foreman, praised Lay for his conscientious and capable work during his time in Y-12.

Lay plans to do some improvement work on his 100-acre farm in the Wolf Valley section of Anderson County, near the Knoxville-Clinton Highway. He has several fine cattle on the place and says he may increase and improve the herd.

Production, Security Go Hand In Hand To Protect Country

What comes first—the chicken or the egg—or production or security?

In the latter question, the answer is "neither," as security and production go hand in hand. It is a fact that security hampers production to some extent, says the Department of Defense. The nation's industrial accomplishments, however, are proof that security regulations do not unduly burden the production efforts.

Security measures are designed to protect military secrets and industrial plants and employees so that the country can defend itself. Industrial production is vital to that defense—and both security and production are of real importance to the Department of Defense.

Production guarantees defense capability because security guarantees continued production.

GEM TECHNIQUE BARED

The Linde Company, a Division of Union Carbide Corporation, has developed a new technique for producing large synthetic sapphires. The new method will yield limited numbers of blue synthetic star sapphires far larger than any previously produced. The new stars now will be available in weights of more than 30 carats. Larger stars in the 15 to 30 carat range also are being produced.

UCC Savings Plan General Fund Checks Going Out On June 30

Y-12 Distribution Set For Regular Pay Points From 6:30-8 A.M. And 2:30-5 P.M.

Next Tuesday, June 30, will be a red-letter day for all Y-12 employees who are members of the Union Carbide Corporation General Savings Fund. Checks representing their savings during the past two years, plus the additions made by Union Carbide under the provisions of the Corporation-wide Savings Plan will be available next Tuesday at the regular pay portals from 6:30 a.m. to 8 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The Savings Plan checks will not be mailed to banks for deposit. Employees who have their pay checks banked may pick up their Savings Plan checks at the office of the Paymaster, ground floor of the Y-12 Cafeteria Building, No. 9711-5.

Y-12ers who plan to be out of town or on vacation may have their Savings Plan checks mailed to them, providing prior written arrangements are made with the Paymaster's office. The Savings Plan checks will be sent to employees off sick, as in the past.

No Delivery Before June 30

No Savings Plan checks will be delivered before June 30.

The General Savings Fund is the short-term savings program of the Union Carbide Savings Plan and has a distribution of all savings every two years. The Savings Plan also has a long-range savings program called the Personal Savings Account. This flexibility is one of the outstanding features of the Plan and permits employees to set aside cash for use every two years, and also provides the choice of long-range investments in either United States Savings Bonds or Union Carbide stock.

Under either part of the Plan, men and women employees authorize payroll deductions up to seven and one-half per cent of their normal straight time earnings with a maximum deduction of $83 per month. The Corporation then adds 10, 20 or 30 per cent to this savings, depending on whether the employee has one, two or three or more years of Company service.

Employees who want to revise their participation in the Savings Plan, to be effective on July 1, have until July 15 to make the changes. Any changes made after July 15 will become effective on October 1 and quarterly thereafter.

South Carolinian To Speak At Physics Seminar Meet

A summer research participant from the University of South Carolina in the Oak Ridge National Laboratory physics division will speak at the divisional physics seminar on Friday afternoon of this week, June 26. He is R. D. Edge, whose subject will be "Atmospheric Cosmic Ray Neutrons." The meeting will be at 3:15 p.m. in the chemistry conference room of Bldg. 4500, ORNL. Y-12ers interested in the subject are invited to attend.

BENEDICT ADVANCED

Donald B. Benedict, vice president of Union Carbide Corporation, has been appointed member of the appropriations committee. He will continue to be responsible for the Corporation's chemicals and plastics activities.

Material For July 8 Edition Of Bulletin Is Requested Early Because Of Holiday

With the annual July 4 holiday falling on Saturday and therefore to be observed in the Y-12 Plant on Friday, July 3, all correspondents and contributors to The Bulletin are urged to have their material—pictures and news matter—into the newspaper office NOT LATER THAN WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, for publication in the edition of July 8. This is necessary, not only because of the Independence Day holiday in the plant, but also because of the printing and engraving firms in Knoxville that produce The Bulletin also observe the long week-end holiday. The cooperation of everyone will be greatly appreciated.

On the Friday, July 3 holiday, no Y-12 employee will be required to work except those necessary for the continuous operation and protection of the plant.

THREE Y-12 EMPLOYEES ARE MEMBERS OF THE NEW OAK RIDGE CITY COUNCIL, with Alvin K. Bissell, center, of the SS Control Department, being elected mayor of the newly incorporated city last week. Mrs. Samuel D. Sharp

SHARP—PAYNE

Miss Carolyn Lamora Payne, of the Y-12 Production Control Department, became the bride of Samuel Dance Sharp, of Fountain City, at 8 o'clock Saturday night, June 13. The ceremony was solemnized at the Fifth Ave. Baptist Church, Knoxville. The Rev. Paul Hoffman, pastor of the Inskip Presbyterian Church, was the officiating minister, assisted by the Rev. Wallace E. Morton, pastor of the Fifth Ave. Baptist Church.

The bride's mother is Mrs. M. B. (Ruby) McCloud, of the Y-12 Superintendents Division. The McClouds live at 4101 Gaines Road, Fountain City. She is secretary to Assistant Y-12 Plant Superintendent George A. Strasser. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Sharp, 5401 Dogwood Lane, Fountain City.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father. During the ceremony nuptial music was presented by Rebecca Hassell, organist; and David Wright, vocalist.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and silk bombazine. It was made with a basque bodice, scooped neckline trimmed with tiny pearls and sequins, with long fitted sleeves pointed at the wrist. The skirt was full with appliques of lace falling into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of English illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and lace. She carried white roses, lilies of the valley and white orchids. She wore a strand of pearls.

For her going-away she wore a silk Shantung suit dress of beige with matching accessories and a flowered hat.

The maid of honor was Miss Jeanne Kay Payne, sister of the bride. She wore a gown of raspberry sheer nylon with fitted bodice and cummerbund with matching slippers of satin.

Mrs. Al Strunk, Detroit, Mich., was matron of honor. Her gown was similar to that of the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Carolyn Banks, Ann Story, Phyllis Bales, Myrna Graves and Peggy Flowers. Their dresses were of pink sheer nylon fashioned the same as that of the maid of honor with raspberry cummerbunds and matching slippers of satin.

Serving as best man was the father of the groom. Ushers were Richard Trythall, Tom Baugh, James Hickey, Winston Hegepath, Nelson Farmer, Allen Riggs, Jack White, John Tipton, Edward Rutter and Charles Severance.

A reception was held at the church immediately after the ceremony. Several Y-12 friends of the bride attended the wedding and reception. Serving at the reception were Mesdames Hal Atwater, Thomas Evans, Nelson Farmer, Bruce Hayes, Jr., William Pavlis and Jack White and Misses Brenda Bittle, Sarah Shelley, Patricia Rule, Sandra Sherrod and Mary Ann Loveday.

The bride attended the University of Tennessee where she studied secretarial science. She

The traveling salesman ran out of gas on a lonely road and asked at the only house in sight, "Can you put me up for the night?"

"I reckon so," replied the farmer, "if you don't mind sharing a room with my young son."

"Great heavens," gasped the salesman, "I'm in the wrong joke."

MAINTENANCE

That introductory joke is intended as a healing potion for the Colyum's good friend, Elmore Koons, Maintenance Planning, ill in Oak Ridge Hospital with a troublesome ticker. Our very best rapid recovery wishes are sent to Elmore and his charming wife, Mavis, the Colyum's correspondent in three Mechanical Operations Division departments.

Duke University Gives Scholarship To Son Of Y-12er

Following his graduation from Clinton High School this spring, Dick Searles, 17, is looking forward to entering Duke University, Durham, N. C., in the fall to major in psychology. He has received a scholarship at Duke to pursue his studies.

The young Clinton graduate is the son of Bert Searles, of the Y-12 Mechanical Inspection Department.

At Clinton High School young Searles was president of the National Honor Society and active in the Spanish Club. He also took a prominent part in drama productions and also in the group that administered first aid at the school. His hobbies are playing chess and exploring caves.

This summer he is working for the Boeing Aircraft Corporation at Cape Cod, Mass.

Ronnie Henderson, Son Of Y-12 Man, Named To All-American Midget Football Squad Of 20

RONNIE HENDERSON, 11, son of a Y-12er, is tailback on the Oak Ridge Boys Club football team — and has been named to the Pop Warner Conference All-American Squad of 20 youngsters from all over the country. He is with Lawrence Hahn, executive director of the Boys Club, who is giving the youngster some instruction in forward passing.

EXCELLENT PASSING FORM is shown by Ronnie Henderson in the top picture. In the bottom photograph, the son of Charles Henderson, Beta Two, is preparing to get off a punt.

Fishing Rodeo Ends With 40 Entries; New Event Starts

The first Y-12 Fishing Rodeo of the season closed at midnight on June 15 and by the deadline time of last Wednesday, June 17, a total of 40 entries had been turned in at the Recreation Office. Because of the absence on vacation of W. E. Davis, Security, one of the rodeo judges, last week the judging was postponed until this week. The other two judges are Avery Kendig, Salvage; and Evan Means, Research Services. The results of the rodeo will be announced in The Bulletin next week.

Meanwhile the second rodeo of the season already is underway, having started at midnight last Saturday, June 20. It will continue until midnight Monday, September 14. All entries must be sent to the Recreation Department, Room 265, Bldg. 9704-2, before noon on Wednesday, September 16.

Entry blanks for the current fishing rodeo may be obtained at the Recreation Office or from shift recreation committees. The eligible species of fish in the rodeo are largemouth, smallmouth and striped bass, walleye and sauger pike, crappie, trout, bream and bluegill. Prizes will be awarded first and second place winners in each class.

Men's Singles Loop For Netters Opens

With 10 players competing, the Y-12 Men's Singles Tennis League swung into action last week. The season will last through the week of August 11-17. Prizes will be awarded the first and second place netters in the loop.

The competing racquetballers are defending champion Sam Campbell, W. L. Harper, Mike Laggis, J. L. Disney, John Perry, Charley Robinson, A. M. Stephens, P. C. Rekemeyer, Ray Kuhn and A. M. Christmas. Rekemeyer has been appointed secretary of the league.

11-Year-Old Displays Excellent Grid Form

An 11-year-old son of a Y-12er is riding high this week in fast company—as a member of a group of 20 youngsters from all sections of the country recently named to the Pop Warner Conference All-American Midget Football Team. He is Ronnie Henderson, whose proud father is Charles Henderson, of the Y-12 Beta Two Department. The Hendersons live at 106 Sheridan Circle, Oak Ridge.

Is Boys Club Tailback

Ronnie, who played tailback on the Oak Ridge Boys Club gridiron outfit last season, is with his fellow All-American squad members on a one-week sightseeing tour of Philadelphia, New York City and Atlantic City as guests of the Pop Warner Conference. This organization is supporting midget football throughout the United States. The Oak Ridge youngster left last Saturday by plane for Philadelphia to join the other youngsters on the tour, to be made by bus. He is the only Tennessee boy on the squad and was the second member of the squad of 20 to be chosen.

Don't think these kids go about their gridiron careers seriously. The midget teams receive excellent training from qualified coaches. There are about 400,000 boys in the country now playing in the Pop Warner midget football program — and the All-American squad is known as the "Little Scholars" squad—the members being picked not only for their performance and future promise in football but also for their personality, scholastic standing and other attributes.

Passes And Kicks Well

Getting back to Ronnie Henderson. The youngster's form—for an 11-year-old—is remarkable. He throws the forward pass accurately and can punt the pigskin about 30 yards. Lawrence Hahn, executive director of the Boys Club who will coach the Oak Ridge team next fall, says he also is cool under fire and has exceptional poise for a youngster.

Ronnie is in the seventh grade at Robertsville Junior High School, where he was president of his class. He is a straight A student. He also is president of his Sunday School class at the Central Baptist Church.

In addition to his football participation with the Boys Club, he is on the Robertsville track squad and took part in the Baylor School Relays in Chattanooga a few weeks ago. Furthermore he plays third base in baseball and was a guard on the Boys Club basketball team last season.

Has Two More Years

The Boys Club team of Oak Ridge won nine and lost five games last season and took part in a post-season bowl contest. Ronnie has two more years to play on the local midget squad, which is limited to youngsters under 13 years old and weighing less than 110 pounds. Last season, Ronnie's playing weight was around 70 pounds.

With all but two members of the 1958 squad returning, Hahn hopes for a fine season this year. The Boys Club executive director believes that under the program as administered locally, Oak Ridge might produce a national midget championship team within a couple of years.

Ronnie Henderson is a level-headed youngster, polite and considerate—and appears to be headed for an outstanding gridiron career. With him go the best wishes of many friends of the Henderson family.

Dorr's 75 Edges Roberts For Low Score In Y-12 Deane Hill Meet; 142 Entered

Hendrix Smacks 380-Yard Drive On Second; Next Event Set For Gatlinburg Links July 25

Carl Dorr, veteran Y-12 golfer who ranks with the best in East Tennessee, racked up a scratch 75 on the Deane Hill Country Club course last Saturday morning to take low honors in the third plant-wide tournament of the summer. He barely edged out Eddie Roberts, Jr., who came through with a neat 76. A total of 142 golfers turned out for the event.

The next Y-12 tournament will be held on Saturday, July 25 at the sporty and beautiful Gatlinburg course.

Several Ties Posted

The Deane Hill competition was hard fought throughout. Several ties were registered in the four divisions and prizes of golf balls were awarded the winners in each division, as well as for the two most number of pars fired for the 18 holes.

One of the features of the tournament was a mighty drive by E. S. Hendrix on the 381-yard second hole, a par four affair. The slightly-built Hendrix whacked a sizzling 380-yard drive, leaving him just one yard short of the green. A fine approach and putt gave him a birdie three on the hole.

Results by divisions follow:

FIRST DIVISION

Scratch: Carl Dorr 75, Eddie Roberts, Jr., 76, Eddie Webster 82, Joe Pryson 84. Handicap: George Wiley 68, Bill Hamill 70, Nelson Tibbatts and Walt Sherrod 73, Frank Tiller and E. S. Hardin 75. Most pars: Paddy Peckman 11, George Peterson, Charley Peterson and E. S. Hendrix nine.

SECOND DIVISION

Scratch: U. M. Oxford 86, Larry Kinkaid, Jack Thomson, B. I. V. Bailey and A. H. True 89. Handicap: C. C. Morgan 71, C. V. Redding 73, John Snyder 74, Lynn Cabe 75. Most pars: Sewell Brown seven, J. D. Davis and R. T. Wyrick six.

THIRD DIVISION

Scratch: George Hines 88, George Evans and E. S. Henck 92, H. R. Butler 93. Handicap: E. P. Braden 70, S. D. Peters 71, Tom Harris 73, L. E. Burkhardt, C. C. Hopkins and J. P. McMillan 73. Most pars: Bill Ebert seven, Joe Miller six.

FOURTH DIVISION

Scratch: John Franzreb 98, E. S. Hardy 101, W. M. James 103, A. K. Bissell and H. C. Norris 105. Handicap: Bill Henry 74, Charley Beckett 76, J. E. McNabb, Dave Dewalt, Paul Bass and Bob Tilley 104. Most pars: Dan Troutman five, L. T. Hardin four.

Kennedy-Beckett Lead In LC League

Frank Kennedy and Charley Beckett sailed along at the top of the standings in the Lenoir City Golf League for Y-12ers in that vicinity during play for the week of June 8 by taking three points from Walt Simmons and Mac Wright. E. S. Hardy and C. E. "Fuzz" Harris took over second place by handing a similar loss to E. N. Clabough and Charley Spradlin by the same score to tighten the ladder. Whitewash victories of four points were scored by S. D. Peters and P. J. Arrowood over H. Huston and W. A. Rutherford and W. M. James and A. E. Perry also picked up four points by forfeit from Tom Harris and Tom Verner.

Arrowood had the low scratch score of the week with 38, lowered to 32 with handicap. Kennedy had 39-28 and "Fuzz" Harris 42-36.

Whiz Kids Climb To Lead In League

Last Inning Rally Beats Atoms Team

The Whiz Kids of Manager J. C. Collins took over first place in the Y-12 Plant Softball League last week by staging a strong rally for six runs in the last of the seventh and final inning for a 7 to 5 triumph over the Atoms. In the only other diamond duel of the week the Atoms knocked the Sportsmen out of a chance to continue in a tie for the top rung on the ladder with a rousing 16 to 1 victory. The Atoms also gained one point in the win column by forfeit from the disbanded Generals.

Atoms Blow 5 To 0 Lead

The Atoms had a 5 to 0 lead through the fifth round, but the Whizzers eased across a counter in the sixth and the deluge broke in the seventh. Don Matlock hurled six-hit ball for the winners and fanned eight while walking six. His mound opponent, Hill, gave the Kids seven safeties and struck out two.

Lee and Ernie Collins banged homers for the victors and Matlock helped out with a timely double. Hickey led the Atoms with the willow with two for three.

Sportsmen Errors Costly

The downfall of the Sportsmen came through 10 big bobbles afield as they got seven hits off Hill, the same number as the Atoms whacked off Ed Sise, the victim of the flood of errors. Hill and Smith each had two for four for the Atoms, one of the former's blows being a triple and the latter socking a double. Ridings had two for three. Stewart had two for three for the Sportsmen, one being a lousy triple.

Line scores and league standings follow:

Atoms	500	047	0-16	7	0
Sportsmen	000	010	0-1	7	10

Batteries:	Atoms, Hill and Hickey, Myers (4th).	Sportsmen, E. Sise and Miller.

Isham-Henck Boost Lead At Harriman

The Isham-Henck team in the UCN Golf League at Harriman increased their lead in the third round of play in the second half of the season by blanking Cueno-Grimes for four points. Tilley-Evans also scored a shutout over Warlick-Willmarth to climb into a tie for second place with Walker-Hoppe, who dropped three points to Brown-Franzreb. Ellis-Anglin took three and one-half points from Thomas-Hamill.

League standing follows:

Team	W	L
Isham-Henck	11½	½
Walker-Hoppe	8	4
Tilley-Evans	8	4
Ellis-Anglin	7	5
Brown-Franzreb	4½	7½

Close Race Staged In Whittle League

Sawyer-Hendrix edged upward in the Whittle Springs Golf League for Y-12ers living in the Knoxville area for the week of June 15 by acquiring six points through the forfeit route. Wyrick-Wilburn drew a bye for the week but held first place on a percentage basis. In other matches Loy-Huskisson licked Kovach-Galle for six points, Morgan-Jordan took four from Leach-Perry and Bishop-Norris topped Troutman-Coleman by the same margin. Petretzky-Briscoe also were beneficiaries of six points via the forfeit route.

Loy and Morgan each had 40s for a tie in low scratch score and Leach and Huskisson were deadlocked at 41s for second. In handicap scoring Loy, Huskisson and Jordan each had 34. The Loy-Huskisson team had the best scratch and handicap scores of 81-68.

League standing follows:

Team	W	L
Wyrick-Wilburn	34	8
Sawyer-Hendrix	35	13
Loy-Huskisson	29	19
Morgan-Jordan	25	17
Kovach-Galle	28	20

HAGEMAN IS HONORED

Carl H. Hageman, vice president-industrial relations for Union Carbide Corporation, was among 14 representatives from the fields of labor relations, municipal administration and city planning in the United States to visit West Germany in May. The American group was guest of the West German government as a part of an exchange program begun in 1952.

Active participation by each employee is the key to an effective security program.

THIS CUTE HULA GAL is Rebecca Ann Wayland, daughter of R. D. Wayland, Sunflower Shop; and granddaughter of Hubert Myers, Buildings and Grounds. The outfit she is wearing came from Hawaii and is being shown by Rebecca at a P-TA carnival in Knoxville when the picture was made. She is a kindergarten pupil.

Carpenter Retirement

1918, serving as sergeant in the 7th Engineers Replacement Regiment at Ft. Washington, Md., and Camp A. A. Humphries, Va., during World War I.

Joe Carpenter first came to work in Y-12 on September 1, 1943, as a key personnel trainee. He soon was made a general foreman in the Process Division and on January 30, 1947, he left under a reduction in force. He returned to work with Carbide on June 25, 1951.

Just prior to coming to work in Y-12, he was with the Tennessee Valley Authority as that agency built the South Holston Dam near Bristol, Tenn., and also the Chatuge Dam near Haysville, N. C.

Worker For AEC Contractors

Between his Y-12 employment period he worked briefly with the Clinchfield Coal Corp., Pound, Va., and with two contractor firms connected with construction work for the Atomic Energy Commission and Union Carbide Corporation in Oak Ridge and Paducah, Ky. While with the F. H. McGraw, Co., of Hartford, Conn., and Paducah, he was that firm's Oak Ridge representative during the construction of the Paducah Plant. Then he was a storekeeper with the Kaighan and Hughes firm during the construction work of the K-29 and K-31 units at the Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant.

Fellow employees and friends from many sections of Y-12 paid tribute to Carpenter last Friday night, June 19, at a dinner given at the Deane Hill Country Club in Knox County. Joe Williams, of the Mechanical Operations Division, was master of ceremonies. Lee Bagwell, head of the Safety Department, presented the retiree with a handsome portable, battery-powered radio. Jack Fisher, Security, outlined Carpenter's history.

"The field of safety in Y-12 definitely has profited from the work done by Joe," said Bagwell in presenting Carpenter his retirement present. "This fine work is reflected in the excellent record of the Mechanical Operations Division, and although it was the efforts of the employees in that division that established the fine mark, Joe contributed greatly to the attitude that made it possible."

"Open For Engagements"

As to his future plans, Carpenter was pretty definite, saying:

"I'm going to do nothing, much. For one month I'm going to visit in Virginia, then go to Baltimore to take in a couple of ball games. I'll come home and help Mary (Mrs. Carpenter) work her flower garden. After that I'll be open to engagements—principally bridge (at which he is a better than average player) and listening and watching baseball games."

Carpenter lives on Bench Road over in Knox County, not too far from Oak Ridge. His daughter, Mrs. Jean Peterson, lives right next door.

NEW COATING PERFECTED

Union Carbide Plastics Company has perfected an epoxy coating that gives tile-like finish to cinderblock walls. The epoxy resin becomes an integral part of the cinderblock and the finish is stain-resistant, washable, non-fading and will not chip or peel.

TASTY SUMMER DISHES ON Y-12 SPECIAL LUNCHES

Tasty warm weather dishes will be served on the 50-cent Special Lunches at the Y-12 Cafeteria tomorrow, Thursday, June 25, and next Tuesday, June 30. The entree for tomorrow's Special Lunch will be ham, macaroni and cheese casserole. On next Tuesday creamed chipped beef on toast will be the main dish. Each Special Lunch also includes one vegetable, choice of salad or dessert and rolls and butter.
